Weekly Matrix

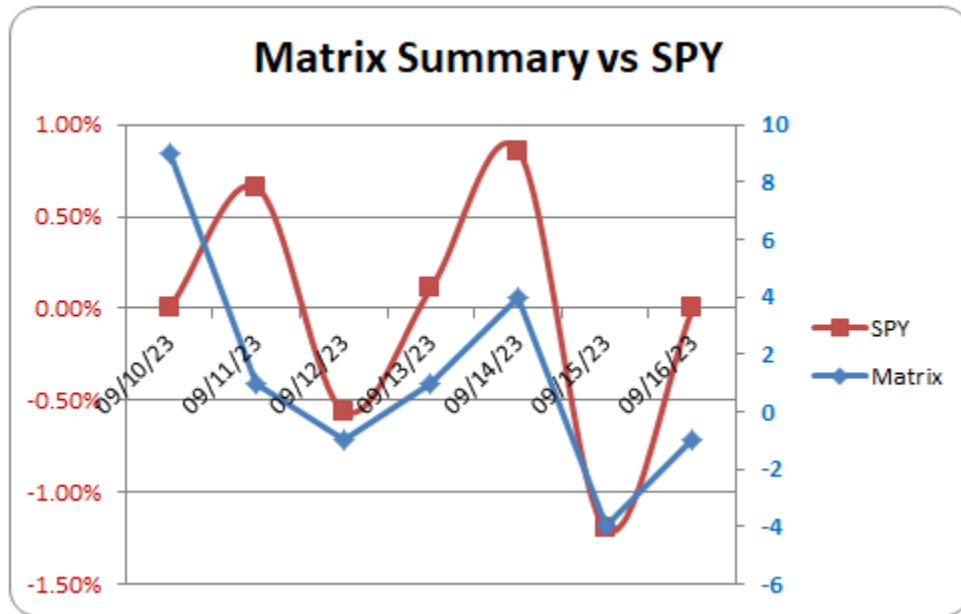

The Matrix look rather mixed this week until NOAA updated their forecast Tuesday night. Their forecast showed a Bearish space weather disturbance for Tuesday to Thursday with Tuesday and Wednesday.

Matrix Summary vs SPY

The Matrix Summary did a pretty good job of showing us how the week would go: a move lower then a move higher and a good chance Friday would close lower.

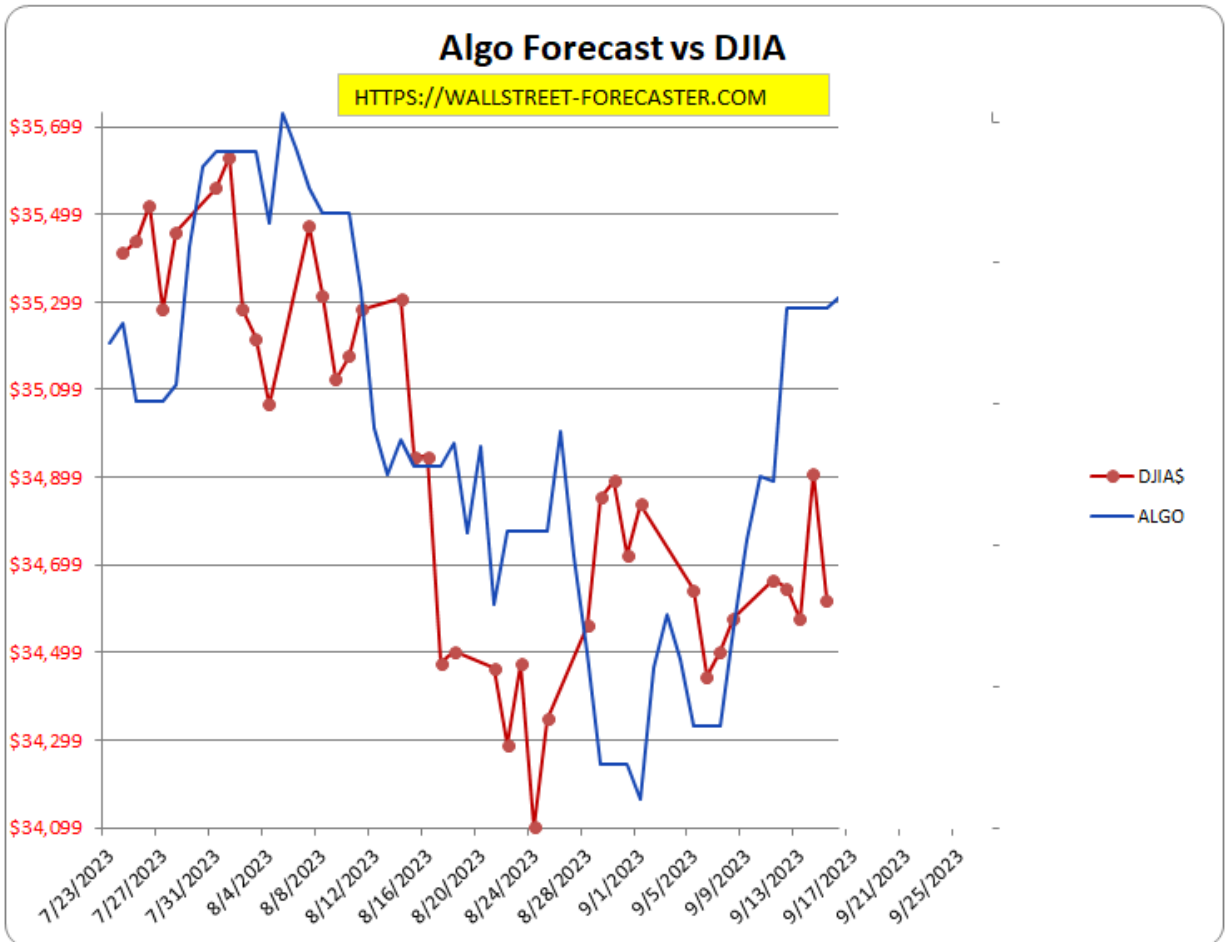

Weekly Planets vs SPY

Planetary forecast was similar to the Matrix Summary: Bearish in the beginning then a move higher and a possible lower close on Friday.

ALGO Forecast vs DJIA

The Algo Forecast seems about 3 or 4 days off but still following the general pattern.

Overextended Indicators

There is one overextended indicator suggesting a move high, but we need both of them before having enough confidence to take a position.
