Things have been a little bit off the last two weeks. Could it be the Mercury Retrograde? Well, here are a few scientific studies on the retrograde and the stock market that shows stocks tend to move lower.

WEEKLY MATRIX

The Matrix indicated another week of volatility. We got all in one direction down. Most indexes closed significantly lower: SPY -3.14%, SPX -3.09% IWM -2.82% NDX -5.47%

The Matrix was not overly Bearish, but the beginning of the week had a couple of red 3's along with a uptick in NOAA's A & (Kp) indexes. We also had the Sun and Moon in a square aspect. That is the most Bearish aspect between the Sun and Moon.

BULLISH/BEARISH CHART

This week the forecast was Bearish and we certainly saw a fall.

OVEREXTENDED CHART

We are bound to get a reversal up. It might be a small one or a large one. We'll see. There is the Israel/Iran conflict that could certainly overpower these overextended indicators.
