Weekly Matrix

Overall, the Matrix look Bullish for the week. DJIA, SPY and SPX closed higher while the IWM and the NDQ closed lower

1. The Venus trine Uranus ($\text{♀}\triangle\text{♅}$) on Tuesday should have given us a higher close on Monday or Tuesday. All indexes except IWM closed higher on Tuesday.
2. On Wednesday, Venus opposed Neptune ($\text{♀}\oslash\text{♆}$) and the two planets form a contraparallel ($\text{♀}\parallel\text{♆}$). Both are Bearish. The Bullish/Bearish count dropped from a Bullish 3 on Tuesday to a Bearish -2, a drop of 5 points. We should have expected a lower close on Tuesday and/or Wednesday. Knowing that Tuesday already closed higher, the chance of a lower close on Wednesday was as close to a sure thing as you can get.
3. NOAA forecast for Tuesday and Wednesday was in the double digits. We expect one or both of those days should close lower. Tuesday closed higher so there was more evidence that Wednesday would be Bearish.
4. Thursday the Bullish/Bearish count went up 5 points, a -2 to a 3. Venus formed a Bullish trine aspect to Pluto ($\text{♀}\triangle\text{♇}$). Cycle L3 and Cycle L4 were both topping out. With Wednesday closing lower, we had to assume Thursday would close higher.
5. Friday had a few weak Bearish indicators giving us a Matrix Summary score of 2.5. The market close higher on Friday. In fact, the gains were more than any other day of the week.

The Summary is created by applying weighted values to the indicators in the Weekly Matrix.
