Weekly Summary

All Matrix indicators are expected to manifest within a +/- 1-day window.

The week began with a mildly bearish outlook, with Thursday and/or Friday expected to be significantly bearish. The week concluded as bearish, with particularly strong bearish movements on Tuesday and Thursday.

The SPY Reversal chart indicated reversal signals on July 27 and July 30. When two signals occur in close proximity, it's challenging to determine if they will act as a single reversal or separate ones. However, the first reversal signal typically leads to a reversal. Refer to the SPY Indicators section below for details.

On Friday, we executed two SPY Put trades:

- SPY Aug01 627 Puts: Entered at $1.03 at Thursday's close, reaching a high of $7.66 (643% gain).
- SPY Aug01 622 Puts: Entered at $0.80 at Friday's open, reaching a high of $3.67 (358% gain).

A complete list of option trades is available at: Options Trades Results.

Algo forecasts were accurate for AAPL, GLD, IWM, QQQ, and TLT. USO moved higher as predicted but retreated on Thursday and Friday. See the Algo Forecasts section below for more details.
