Matrix Calendar

The weekly outlook was:

A number of high volatility indicators this week.
Bullish energy spikes on Tuesday and Wednesday, but on the same days there is a spike in the bearish NOAA energy
The Sun squares the Moon on Wednesday. Expect Tuesday and/or Wednesday to close lower.
This could be a wild week.
A quick look at the Heat Map tells us to expect some bullish moves in the market followed by a bearish move as long as the NOAA indicators stay as high as they are.
10/28/25 -- Updated forecast has Wednesday receiving as much bearish energy as Tuesday. The bullish energy from the aspects is now waning. Good chance for a lower close on Wednesday.
10/28/25 -- Wednesday has gotten a little more bearish on the Heat Map. It is now the most bearish day of the week.
10/30/25 -- Friday should close higher.

Matrix Heat Map

The Matrix Heat Map, a simplified version of the Matrix, applies adjusted weightings to its values.

The most bullish day was Monday, and it closed higher. Unfortunately, Monday's have a mind of their own, so no trades on Monday. The second most bullish day was Friday which did close higher. The most bearish day was Wednesday. It closed lower.

A history of Option trades can be found at:

Standard options: OSS /oss Results Options Trades.asp

Binary options: OSS /oss Results Nadex Options.asp

Matrix Summary

Mondays are not included in the analysis. As usual, the indicators forecasted three days correctly.

It appears we got all the exchanges right on all 5 days.

SPY Small Reversal Signals

These indicators are doing a good job of forecasting 2 to 3 day reversals. The reversals could last longer but 2 to 3 days is the minimum to be expected.

Algo Forecasts

What are Algo Forecasts: http://oss.cc/education/algo_forecasts.pdf

NOTE: The blue line forecasts direction not price, but large moves of the blue line usually correspond with large moves in the asset.
