Summary

Weekly Matrix Indicators

- Heat Map
 - Correctly forecast a lower close on Wednesday.
 - Thursday was the most bullish, but we ignore values between -1 to 1. Not reliable.
- The Moon square Sun aspect on Friday indicates a lower close on Thursday and/or Friday. Both closed lower..
- NOAA's space weather forecast suggested a likely close lower on Monday which it did.
- The Matrix Summary correctly predicted whether the SPY would close higher or lower 2 out of the last 4 days of the week. Usually we get 3 days a week correct. Reminder: Mercury is retrograde. Indicators are not as accurate during this period.
- The SPY Small Reversal Indicator correctly forecast the high on Tuesday and a 2 to 3 days trend lower
- The Mars conjunct the Moon North Node on Friday indicates a downward trend 2 to 3 days before, or if there is no downward movement, we expect it 2 to 3 days after.
- The Mars conjunct the Moon's North Node aspect has a long history of occurring when the stock market has a sharp sell-off and when commodities spike. Anyone notice the price of OIL? See a history of that aspect and how the markets were affected on the next page.
- The Volatility Indicator spiked a little at the end of the week. An intra-day move for the indices is expected to be or +/- 1%. That was true on Thursday.

Mars-North Node Conjunction Dates

2008	Market Crash
2019	Volital period in global markets

Nearly all correction in the stock market are associated with a Mars-Node aspect.

Matrix Summary

Mondays are not included in the analysis. As usual, the indicators forecasted three days correctly.

SPY Small Reversal Signals (SSRS & SSRSM)

When the dotted blue line moves above 0.5, there is a high probability of a 2 to 3 day reversals. The reversals could last longer but 2 to 3 days is the minimum to be expected.
